Principal Activities

The Company's principal activities are to promote transparency, accountability and integrity nationally in Australia and globally through the network of Transparency International (TI) by:

- mobilising a broad-based nationwide coalition as part of the global TI movement
- fostering and supporting research, development and dissemination of effective corruption prevention and enforcement
- raising awareness and advocating action by government, business and civil society.

It is a non-profit organisation and accredited as the Australian national chapter of TI, the worldwide movement against corruption. It is funded mainly by subscription income from individual and organisation members.

In Australia, the Company seeks to build a national coalition of those committed to reducing corruption through state-based and national activities mainly in co-operation with other organisations. It does not investigate or expose specific cases but works to improve conduct and systems in Australia and overseas.

Results

The net surplus for the company for the financial year was $56,992 (2013- $56,567).

Review of Operations

Company operations have proceeded as previously (raising awareness of corruption and anti-corruption measures in Australia through newsletters, electronic updates and the website; organising and participating in anti-corruption events; and public speaking) with a number of initiatives to continue to strengthen awareness, institutions, systems and the political will to recognise and combat corruption in the Asia Pacific Region and beyond.

Efforts have continued to increase the membership of TI Australia (TIA) by companies, NGOs and individuals, and the extent of collaboration with supporters.

Implementation of the Strategic Plan for 2012 – 2015 has continued. The Plan will ensure that TIA's program is in line with the TI Movement's Strategy 2015 and further strengthened through strategic engagement with the wider movement. It will also inform the development of the TI Australia Corporate Partnerships program.

Regional Committees

TIA is pleased to confirm the work of active Regional Committees in Brisbane, Sydney, Canberra, Melbourne and Perth. A number of initiatives are being undertaken and members recruited. This element of our Strategic Plan is an important extension of our activities, reaching out to new audiences, and gaining new perspectives and valuable contributions from the organisers as we address corruption risks.

Revenue Transparency

TIA was represented on the Multi-Stakeholder Group which oversaw the Australian Government's Pilot implementation of the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI). The MSG has submitted its report to Government and TIA joins industry, Government and Civil Society representatives in recommending that the Australian Government move to implement the EITI in Australia in line with the approach undertaken through the Pilot.

Whistleblower Protection - Commonwealth Legislation

Following the breakthrough enactment in June 2013 of an amended Public Interest Disclosure Bill by the Federal Parliament, Professor AJ Brown, a TIA Director, is now directing efforts to address the continued lack of protection for private sector whistleblowers that expose offences in breach of federal law. Such action has earned strong recommendations for reform from the Senate Committee on ASIC to which TIA made submissions.

Engaging the G20

TIA Director Greg Thompson actively led TIA's engagement with the G20 process during this year of Australia's Presidency. With support of TI's Maggie Murphy, and TIA Director Prof. AJ Brown who worked with the T20, TIA was able to actively engage the Australian Government and the G20 Anti-Corruption Working Group to ensure the Anti-Corruption priorities and commitments are implemented and renewed for coming years.

International Engagement

Internationally, during this past year TIA participated actively in serious initiatives to strengthen the capacity of the TI network at the AMM and TI Global and Asia Pacific meetings in Berlin, Wellington, Kuala Lumpur, Bali and Kathmandu. TI and Griffith University held an international conference on Corruption, Integrity Systems and the G20 in June 2014.

NOTES TO AND FORMING PART OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The significant policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are:

(a) Basis of preparation

In the opinion of the directors, Transparency International Australia is not a reporting entity. The financial report of the Company has been drawn up as a special purpose financial report for distribution to the members and for the purposes of fulfilling the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.

The financial report has been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting as defined in AASB 108 Accounting Policies, using the historical cost convention and a going concern assumption. Except where stated, it does not take into account changing money values or current valuations of non-current assets.

The accounting policies have been consistently applied and except where there is a change in accounting policy, are consistent with those of the previous year.

The Financial Report has been prepared in accordance with the recognition and measurement principles of Australian Accounting Standards and other mandatory professional requirements in Australia. It contains only those disclosures considered necessary by the directors to meet the needs of the members.

There are no new Australian Accounting Standards or interpretations that have been issued but are not yet effective with an expected material impact on the Company's financial report in the period of initial application. There were no Australian Accounting Standards that have been adopted early.

(b) Revenue recognition

Revenue consists of subscriptions and project grants received. Subscription revenue is brought to account over the period of subscription.

(c) Income taxes

Based on advice received the directors believe the Company to be tax exempt.

(d) Receivables

The collectibility of debts is assessed at balance date and specific provision is made for any doubtful accounts.

Other receivables to be settled within 60 days are carried at amounts due.

(e) Depreciation

Plant and Equipment are depreciated over their estimated useful lives. Plant and equipment are first depreciated in the year of acquisition using the straight line method. The depreciation rate used for plant and equipment is 20%.

(f) Goods and services tax

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST), except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). In these circumstances, the GST is recognised as part of the cost of part of the acquisition of the asset or as part of an item of the expense.

Receivables and payables are stated with the amount of GST included.

The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included as a current asset or liability in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are included in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO are classified as operating cash flows.

The Company became registered for GST on 1 May 2003.

The directors of the company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report and have determined that the basis of preparation described in Note 1 to the financial report is appropriate to meet the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and is appropriate to meet the needs of the members.

The directors' responsibility also includes such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of a financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

Our procedures include reading the other information in the Annual Report to determine whether it contains any material inconsistencies with the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independent auditor's report to the members of
