

Australia's public integrity institutions: Strengths, weaknesses, options

21 August 2018, Canberra

Centre for Governance and Public Policy and Transparency International Australia

When

Tuesday, August 21, 2018
9:00 AM - 5:00 PM

Where

4 National Circuit, Barton
Canberra

Join leading research experts, professionals, integrity practitioners, civil society representatives, policy advisors and policymakers – and help identify best practice in the design and work of our public integrity institutions.

A National Symposium as part of Australia's second National Integrity System Assessment.
FREE but registration required: register here by 15 August

Professor A J Brown, Centre for Governance & Public Policy, Griffith University; Boardmember, Transparency International

Serena Lillywhite
Chief Executive Officer
Transparency International Australia

John McMillan AO
former Commonwealth and NSW Ombudsman foundation Australian Information Commissioner and foundation Australian Commissioner for Law Enforcement Integrity

Hon. Tom Bathurst AC
Chief Justice of NSW

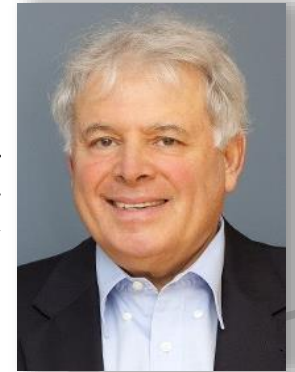

Karen Carmody
Parliamentary Crime &
Corruption Commissioner,
Queensland

Professor Janet Ransley
Griffith Criminology Institute

Hon. Stephen Charles QC Accountability Round Table; National Integrity Committee, The Australia Institute

Professor
Adam Graycar
Flinders University

Morry Bailes
President
Law Council of Australia

- Is it time for an Australian national integrity commission?
- What would be its constitutional basis?
- What are the best lessons from State and international experience for establishing a federal anti-corruption agency?
- What is the 'best fit' between anti-corruption agencies and the other core institutions in our multi-agency systems - including our ombudsmen, auditors-general, information commissioners, whistleblower protection agencies and the like?
- What are the best models for resourcing, coordinating and ensuring the parliamentary accountability of integrity bodies?
- How can Australia return to its position as a world leader in the fight against public sector corruption?

Register now

transparency.org.au/national-integrity-system-assessment griffith.edu.au/anti-corruption

Enquiries: nationalintegrity@griffith.edu.au

Australian Government
Australian Research Council

Crime and Corruption Commission

Strengthening Australia's National Integrity System: Priorities for Reform

Our Australian Research Council-funded team is working with government, business and civil society to identify the key strengths, gaps and solutions for national approaches to preventing, limiting and combatting corruption – join us!

Participate in the National Integrity Survey
click here to find out more