Review of Operations

Company operations have proceeded as previously (raising awareness of corruption and anti-corruption measures in Australia through newsletters, electronic updates and the website, organising and participating in anti-corruption events and public speaking) with a number of initiatives to continue to strengthen awareness and the political will to recognise and combat corruption in the Asia Pacific Region.

During the year a report was made to DFAT on the outcomes of the successful workshops conducted in Vietnam and Bangkok by TIA and Regional Chapters on the APEC Code of Conduct for Business.

Efforts have been continued to increase the number of companies, NGOs and individuals as members of TI Australia and the extent of collaboration with supporters.

Private Sector: During the year the release of new surveys, workshop materials and a report on Corporate Practices by TI enabled us to actively engage with a number of companies on compliance with anti-bribery laws and techniques for deterrence or prevention of corruption.

The National Integrity Systems Assessment (NISA) as embodied in the NISA Report entitled Chaos or Coherence? - Strengths, Opportunities and Challenges for Australia's Integrity Systems - continues to provide the basis for our efforts to strengthen public integrity. The report's recommendations reflect the priorities of the Chapter. TIA made submissions to Parliamentary Inquiries by the Australian Government on ACLEI, the ALRC inquiry into the framework for Official Inquiries and Royal Commissions, Federal Freedom of Information, Whistleblower Protection, the Proust Review in Victoria, the Queensland Integrity Bill and the inquiry leading up to the setting up of the Integrity Commission of Tasmania.

Revenue Transparency - promoting Australia's support for EITI internationally, and to urge implementation - hosted visit to Australia by Revenue Watch Institute Internationally, Elizabeth O'Keeffe attended the Global Annual Meeting of TI in Berlin in November 2009 and Greg Thompson and Elizabeth O'Keeffe the TI Asia Pacific Regional Program Meeting in Delhi in May 2010.

Except where stated, it does not take into account changing money values or current valuations of non-current assets.

The accounting policies have been consistently applied and except where there is a change in accounting policy, are consistent with those of the previous year.

The financial report has been prepared in accordance with AASB 101 Presentation of Financial Statements, AASB 107 Cash Flow Statements, AASB 108 Accounting Policies, AASB 1031 Materiality and AASB 1048 Interpretation and Application of Standards which apply to all entities required to prepare financial reports under the Corporation Act 2001 and other applicable accounting standards and Urgent Issues Group interpretations with the exception of the disclosure requirements in the following:

There are no new Australian Accounting Standards or interpretations that have been issued but are not yet effective with an expected material impact on the Company's financial report in the period of initial application.

(b) Revenue recognition

Revenue consists of subscriptions and project grants received. Subscription revenue is brought to account over the period of subscription.

(c) Income taxes

Based on advice received the directors believe the Company to be tax exempt.
