

Professor Ian Hall, Director of the Griffith Asia Institute is pleased to invite you to the Australian launch of

People and Corruption: Asia Pacific Survey 2017

Transparency International's Global Corruption Barometer

Date:

15 March 2017

Time:

5:30pm – 7:30pm

Location:

The Ship Inn,
Cnr Stanley & Sidon Streets
Southbank Parklands, Brisbane

Special guest speaker:

Natalia Soebagjo

Chair of Transparency International Indonesia, member of TI's global board, and Executive Director of the Centre for the Study of Governance at the University of Indonesia.

With experience in the securities and financial industry, consultancy and the media, Natalia is a member of the Independent Team for National Bureaucracy Reform, an Independent Commissioner of PT AIG Insurance Indonesia and recently a member of the selection panel for new commissioners to Indonesia's KPK (Corruption Eradication Commission).

Established under a Griffith University Australian Research Council project in 2004, Transparency International's Global Corruption Barometer is the largest worldwide survey of public opinion and experience about corruption. Setting the scene for National Integrity 2017, hear the latest results from Cambodia, China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Mongolia, Myanmar, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Vietnam, Taiwan, South Korea, Japan and Australia.

Registration:

Free, but required: <https://events.griffith.edu.au/AsiaPacificSurvey2017>

A Welcome Event for

NATIONAL INTEGRITY 2017

16-17 MARCH 2017 – NOVOTEL BRISBANE

events.griffith.edu.au/nationalintegrity2017