

Australian Government
Attorney-General's Department

National Integrity Conference

Workshop - Operating with integrity in the world: Building trust in Australian businesses

Catherine Hawkins

First Assistant Secretary, Criminal Justice Policy and Programmes Division
Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department

www.ag.gov.au

Questions

- 1. What legal and policy frameworks best incentivise Australian business to act in an ethical way?*
- 2. Specifically, how would 'deferred prosecutions agreements' (known as 'DPAs') help to promote a culture of integrity in business?*

Open Government Partnership

Themes for Australia's first National Action Plan

(Refer to handout)

i. Transparency and accountability in business	1.1	Improve whistle-blower protections in the tax and corporate
	1.2	Beneficial ownership transparency
	1.3	Extractive industries transparency
	1.4	Combating corporate crime
ii. Open data and digital transformation	2.1	Release high-value datasets and enable data-driven innovation
	2.2	Build and maintain public trust to address concerns about data sharing and release
	2.3	Digitally transform the delivery of government services
iii. Access to government information	3.1	Information management and access laws for the 21 st century
	3.2	Understand the use of freedom of information
	3.3	Improve the discoverability and accessibility of government data
iv. Integrity in the public sector	4.1	Confidence in the electoral system and political parties
	4.2	National Integrity Framework
	4.3	Open contracting
v. Public participation and engagement	5.1	Delivery of Australia's Open Government National Action Plan
	5.2	Enhance public participation in government decision making

Questions

- 1. What legal and policy frameworks best incentivise Australian business to act in an ethical way?*
- 2. Specifically, how would 'deferred prosecutions agreements' (known as DPAs) help to promote a culture of integrity in business?*