

Register now for the Australian Public Sector Anti-Corruption Conference, 14–16 November 2017

Transparency International Australia is proud to be a partner of the 6th Australian Public Sector Anti-Corruption Conference (APSACC) 2017. The conference will be held in Sydney from Tuesday, November 14 to Thursday, 16 November 2017.

APSACC aims to expand delegate knowledge in order to better identify corruption and misconduct risk areas and increase understanding of practical solutions. The program comprises local and international anti-corruption practitioners and experts in management and leadership, change and communications, investigations, audit and oversight, governance and research.

Early bird registration closing soon!

Register and pay before 15 August 2017 to secure the early-bird discount. Go to www.apsac.com.au to see the full program of speakers and the workshop program and to register online. APSACC 2017 speakers include:

- the Honourable Mark L Wolf, US District Judge, District of Massachusetts and Chair, Integrity Initiatives International, US
- George Bokelberg, Special Agent, Federal Bureau of Investigation, US
- Esther George, Cybercrime and Cybersecurity Consultant, UK
- Chris Currie, Director, Emergency Management, National Preparedness and Critical Infrastructure Protection, Government Accountability Office, US
- Alan MacSporran QC, Chairperson, Crime and Corruption Commission, Queensland
- Serena Lillywhite, CEO, Transparency International Australia
- Graeme Head, Commissioner, Public Service Commission NSW
- Margaret Crawford, Auditor-General of NSW
- David Franks, Director, Fraud Prevention, Australian Taxation Office
- Luke Cornelius, Assistant Commissioner, Victoria Police
- Paul Cullen, Principal Manager, Anti-Fraud and Corruption, Sydney Trains
- Mal Wauchope, Commissioner, Public Sector Commission, WA
- Shane Kirne, Deputy Director, Commercial, Financial and Corruption, Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions
- Clem O'Regan, Assistant Commissioner, Ethical Standards Command, Queensland Police Service

- Dr Quinn Grundy, Charles Perkins Centre, University of Sydney
- Dr Adam Graycar, Professor of Public Policy, Flinders University, SA

Who should attend?

It is anticipated that the conference will be attended by over 500 key decision-makers from all tiers of government in Australia and overseas, including but not limited to:

- public sector executives and managers
- corruption prevention specialists
- governance managers
- local government executives
- planning specialists
- senior police officers
- university executive members
- academics
- business analysts
- change managers
- policy advisers
- internal auditors
- investigators.

APSACC 2017 is organised and hosted by the NSW Independent Commission Against Corruption and the Crime and Corruption Commission, Queensland.